

Theatre offers free backstage passes

A theatre which hosts a diverse range of local, national and international events and performances from rock concerts to pantomime is offering the public a free backstage pass next month.

The Auden Theatre in Holt is throwing its doors open for a special open day on Sunday, September 25.

Everyone is welcome and entrance is free.

Members of the public are invited to discover what goes on backstage, meet the theatre team and learn what it takes to put on a show.

■ The foyer will be open on the day from 11am and theatre tours start at 11.30am and 2pm. To book, call 01263 713444 or email: wmetcalfe@greshams.com
