

High drama at Gresham's

Jack and the Beanstalk is coming to Holt - oh yes he is!

The Auden Theatre in Holt has announced that Reamba Productions' pantomime, Jack and the Beanstalk, is taking to the stage for two shows in the run up to Christmas.

The traditional show will follow Jack as he goes on his quest to defeat Giant Blunderbore. It's an enchanting story that will excite audiences of all ages.

Highly acclaimed writer, comedian and director, Ben Langley, has written the show which features spectacular scenery, stunning costumes and comedy that will have the whole family laughing, cheering and feeling great.

Auden Theatre Administrator, Wendy Metcalfe, said: "Jack and the Beanstalk promises to be a traditional panto full of beans. There will be plenty of music and laughter and lots of audience participation for the whole family to enjoy. No festive season is complete without a visit to this magical panto!"

Jack will appear at the Auden Theatre for just one day on Saturday, December 17, so early booking is advised. Tickets can be purchased for a matinee performance at 2.30pm and for the evening performance at 6.30pm and cost only £9 for adults and £5 for children. Parking at the Auden Theatre is free and refreshments will be available.

Tickets can be booked online at www.audentheatre.co.uk or call the Box Office on 01263 713444.
