OLIVIA COLEMAN

Olivia Coleman is the face of modern television, from Peepshow to 2012, W1A and Broadchurch as well as films like London Road, Tyrannosaur and Hot Fuzz. Douglas Robb, headmaster at Gresham's School, near Holt, Norfolk, says staff and pupils take a great pride in her. "Every time it's announced that former Gresham's pupil, Olivia Colman has taken on a new role, there's a wave of excitement at the school. At Gresham's she was noted for her versatility, determination and unassuming hard work."
