

Gresham's Clay Shooting Club just champion

Gresham's clay shooting stars.

Gresham's Clay Shooting Club members have been crowned National Cadet Clay Target Shooting Champions at the annual National Championships in Cambridge and have returned to school with no less than seven trophies.

The Holt team - Kees Jones, James Matthews, Theo Rossi,

Mark Heath, Will Pointer, Archie Jones, Billy Addison and Joe Kooreman - took the top prize and added to it by achieving a clean sweep; winning every single team discipline against 32 of the best shooting schools and teams in the country.

Sixth Form pupils, Kees Jones and James Matthews took individual honours. Kees won the silver medal for individual high gun and gold in the CCF sporting high gun and James won gold in the individual Down the Line discipline after a shoot off for first place.

Team coach Charlie Mack said: "Winning seven trophies is an absolutely amazing achievement and I could not be prouder of the team."

Picture: GRESHAM'S SCHOOL