Section 11: Criminal record

Gresham's applies for an Enhanced Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), including a Children's Barred List check for all positions at the School which amount to regulated activity. It is unlawful for Gresham's to employ anyone who is barred from working with children. It is a criminal offence for any person who is barred from working with children to attempt to apply for a position with us.

If you are successful in your application you will be required to complete a DBS Disclosure Application Form. Employment with us is conditional upon Gresham's being satisfied with the result of the Enhanced DBS Disclosure. Any information disclosed will be handled in accordance with any guidance and / or code of practice published by the DBS.

Gresham's School is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore all convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings (including those which would normally be considered "spent" under the Act) must be declared. You are not required to disclose a caution or conviction for an offence committed in the United Kingdom if it has been filtered in accordance with the DBS filtering rules (see Appendix 1 to this form.

If you have a criminal record this will not automatically debar you from employment. Instead, each case will be assessed fairly by reference to the School's objective assessment procedure set out in our recruitment, selection and disclosure policy and procedure.

It is a condition of your application that you answer the questions below. See Appendix 1.

Have you been cautioned, subject to a court order, bound over, received a reprimand or warning or been found guilty of committing any criminal offence whether in the United Kingdom or in another country? You are not required to disclose a caution or conviction for an offence committed in the United Kingdom which is subject to the DBS filtering rules (see Appendix 1).	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>

If answering "YES" to any of the above, please provide details on a separate sheet and send this in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" with your application form.

Section 12: References

Please supply the names and contact details of two people who we may contact for references. One of these must be your current or most recent employer.

If your current / most recent employment does / did not involve work with children, then your second referee should be from your employer with whom you most recently worked with children. Neither referee should be a relative or someone known to you solely as a friend.

We intend to take up references on all shortlisted candidates before interview. Gresham's reserves the right to take up references from any previous employer.

If we receive a factual reference i.e. one which contains only limited information about you, additional references may be sought.

If you have previously worked overseas we may take up references from your overseas employers.

We may also telephone your referees in order to verify the reference they have provided.

Section 13: Recruitment

It is our policy to employ the best qualified personnel and to provide equal opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not to discriminate against any person because of their race, colour, national or ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital or civil partnership status, religion or religious belief, disability or age. All new appointments are subject to a probationary period.

A copy of our recruitment policy and child protection policy is available for download from Gresham's main website. Please take the time to read them.

If your application is successful, we will retain the information provided in this form (together with any attachments) on your personnel file.

If your application is unsuccessful, all documentation relating to your application will normally be confidentially destroyed six months after the date on which you are notified of the outcome.

How we use your information

Information on how we use personal data is set out in Gresham's Privacy Notice, which can be found at <https://www.greshams.com/site-services/privacy/>
