

Celebrations for scholar

A teenager is celebrating after winning a scholarship.

Lucy-Rose Barr, a pupil from Ormiston Venture Academy in Gorleston, is celebrating after being awarded a full scholarship to study at Gresham's School.

She was selected for the award out of four Ormiston Venture Academy pupils.

She will join Gresham's Sixth Form in September 2016 to study the International Baccalaureate (IB).

Gresham's has previously awarded six scholarships to students at Ormiston Venture Academy who have gone on to study for a range of careers at universities in the UK and overseas.
