

Cadets find the target at championships

SHOOTING

Cadets from Gresham's School Combined Cadet Force enjoyed success at the annual Cadet Clay Target Shooting Championships.

Three teams from the Holt school's CCF took part in this year's Championships, held at Cambridge Gun Club.

Gresham's A team of Coxswain George Hopkins (team captain), Sergeant Hal Riley, Sergeant Will Jones and Lance Corporal Matt Rowe collected bronze medals in the Sporting competition, gold in the Flush and picked up the overall bronze medal, missing the top spot by a mere 15 clays. They were, however, crowned the CCF High Team lifting the Tonbridge School Trophy and gold medals for their efforts.

Other notable achievements included Gresham's 'C' team made up of Cadet Will Pointer, Cadet

■ Gresham's A team at the prize giving.
Photo: COLIN SCOLES.

Charlie Gill, Cadet Theo Rossi and led by Lance Corporal Will Livock (Norfolk ACF) coming sixth in the Sporting, only seven birds behind the 'A' side, and tying with them in fifth place in the DTL. Riley and Gill also managed top 10 individual finishes in the High Gun competition.

Webb (Dunston Hall): 9am and 2.10pm - Glen Head

Div 3: Dot Eagles nett 77, Alyson Wise nett 79.
Winner of Medal & Bogey Cup: Betty Engledow.

46pts, Robin Burton & Eric Horrell 42pts, John O'Neil & Paul Thurston 41pts (ocb)

K Dalgleish.

5.30 - 1 Twin Appeal (IRE) (G Gibbons) 7-4 Fav, 2 Native Falls (IRE) 7-2, 3 Street Boss (IRE) 33-1. 8 ran.