FORMER ENGLAND CRICKET INTERNATIONAL JOINS GRESHAM'S

Gresham's School is delighted to announce that former England Cricket international, Mal Loye, has joined its cricket coaching team. Mal arrives at the school with a playing career that has seen him play at both national and county level. He played a significant part in Lancashire's County Championship Division Two title winning season in 2005 and was the county's leading run-scorer with 1,198.

Responsible for the delivery of Gresham's cricket programme for 9-18 year olds, Mal will provide coaching in both the Prep and Senior Schools. His appointment brings a unique opportunity for the pupils to be put through their paces by a highly-experienced player and coach and an exciting future for the development of cricket at the school. Steve Adams, Gresham's School's Sports Development Director, said: "Mal's appointment is great news for Gresham's and for our keen cricketers and demonstrates the School's commitment to achieving sporting excellence. His vast coaching and playing experience will be great for their development and they are all looking forward to a fantastic season ahead."

Mal Loye added: "I can't wait to get started at Gresham's and to share my passion for cricket with the pupils to help them reach their full potential. I've been bowled over by their enthusiasm for the game; working with committed young players who are keen to make the most of coaching opportunities is an exciting prospect!"

Mal is an ECB Level 4 Coach and his recent roles have included: Bangladesh High Performance Coach (2015), Natal (South Africa) Batting Coach (2013-14) and manages a successful coaching consultancy business. Mal also fulfills media commitments with BBC Radio commentary.

He replaces former Gresham's cricket coach, Mark Sorell, who has recently been appointed as Director of Cricket for Northern Capital Territories in Australia.

CHESS PROBLEMS by Dr Cedric Lytton

186. Allan Bell & Jonathan Mestel
2. Prize, Champagne Tourney,
Ostroda 2015

186. Position after Black's 13th move. Game score?

187. Ronald Turnbull
Problemist Supplement,
March 1993

187. Position after White's 8th move. Game score?

Solution to No. 186: 1.d4 g5 2.Bf4 g4 3.e3 g3 4.Qg4 gxh2 5.Be2 hxg1N 6.Rh5 Bh6 7.Qh4 Kf8 8.Bg4 Nf3+ 9.gxf3 Kg7 10.Rg5+ Kf6 11.Rf5++ Ke6 12.Re5++ Kd6 13.Rd5++ Kc6. The set theme for this

Composing Tourney was: A piece can reach a certain square in a single move, but actually moves to another square first. Here we have 3 such moves by the white R on its way from h5 to d5. The mechanism is most attractive, with the successive white interferences and following double-checks. (The first-prize-winner showed five such moves!)

On No. 187 above, a solver commented "Precisely-timed joke, just the thing to interest OTB players!" Difficulty 1 (that is, very easy). Despite the special £25 prize on offer, I still have no junior solvers - Broadland and Morley Chess Clubs, please point your strong junior players in this direction! It's not too late!
