
ORMISTON PUPIL WINS SCHOLARSHIP TO GRESHAM'S

Daniel Symonds, a 15 year old pupil from Ormiston Venture Academy in Gorleston, has been awarded a full scholarship to attend Gresham's in Holt. He will join Gresham's Sixth Form in September where he will study for the IB Diploma.

Daniel who enjoys Maths and Science is excited about the potential benefits of utilising the expertise in Maths, Physics and Engineering available at Gresham's. After completing his IB Diploma he would like to pursue Aerospace Engineering. On being told of his selection, Daniel said, "I am ecstatic. It's just a massive opportunity. It's fantastic. I want to study at MIT as it is linked to NASA and my aim is to go to space one day!"

Gresham's has previously awarded four scholarships to students at Ormiston Venture Academy. Last year's scholar, Callum Cooke of Great Yarmouth, went on to study Fine Art at the University of Oxford. Simon Gilbert-Barnham, the Principal at Ormiston Venture Academy
